PINE TREE QUILT GUILD

What We Offer For YOU!

At your first meeting you will see many “stations” around the room where you can find out about SOME of our activities.

Some you may see are:

Mystery Gift & Quarter Yard Club:

At each meeting tickets are sold and drawings are held for quilting items and fabric. Ticket purchase is optional.

Speakers and Speaker Workshops:

At many meetings you will hear a speaker, an expert in his/her field of quilting. Several times a year that speaker will conduct a workshop/class on the following day. Those classes are available to members for a nominal fee.

Opportunity Quilt: Our quilt is displayed at many meetings. Other guilds often bring their Opportunity Quilts to our guild and sell tickets.

Treasure Table: Members are encouraged to donate usable quilting supplies. These items are for sale at meetings with the monies going to the general fund.

Other activities you may hear about:

Community Service: Our Guild is very active in service to the community. We make quilts, placemats, walker bags and Christmas stockings which are distributed to community members in need. Members make items in their homes or at our monthly “Drop in and Quilt”.

Drop In and Quilt: Members are invited to “drop in” once a month to work on their own or Community Service projects. Bring a lunch and sew with others. A good way to make friends.

Education Outreach: This committee offers help to elementary classroom teachers with quilt-related projects. Members go into local schools to help children with sewing, and learning about quilts with a lending library of children’s quilt books, a live play and a collection (“trunk show”) of quilts to share. At present, this committee is on hold.

Home Workshops: Guild members contribute their time and talents to teaching other members skills that they have mastered. A home workshop is offered most months.

Mini Groups: Because it is easier to make friends in a small group, our Guild has many “mini-groups” of 8-12 members who meet in homes to work on individual or group projects. These are casual groups; some meet in the evening, some during daytime hours. The goal is friendship and learning with other quilters. If you wish to join one, there is a chairman who will help you.

Scholarships: Every year, the Guild awards a scholarship to deserving local high school graduate going on to college, who plans to major in art or textile-related subjects.

Quilt Show: Every year, the first weekend in May, our Guild holds a quilt show at the Nevada County Fairgrounds. We usually display around 300 quilts. Working on one of the quilt show committees is a very good way to make friends in the Guild. The Quilt Show is our main source of income to run our guild, scholarships and perform service to the community. We also make and raffle an “Opportunity Quilt “ each year to raise funds. The winner is announced at the show.
